Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Transactions and Proceedings, Vol. 38: Of the New Zealand Institute, 1905 Captain F. W. Hutton, F.R.S.(1836-1905). - Captain F. W. Hutton, who was President of the New Zealand Institute at the time of his death, was born in Lincolnshire in November, 1836, and received his earlier education at Southwell Grammar School and at the Royal Naval Academy at Gosport. After serving for some time as a midshipman he left the sea and studied at Kings College, London. Soon, however, he received a commission in the Royal Welsh Fusiliers, and saw active service in the Crimea and in the Indian Mutiny. He had already devoted some attention to geology, and on his return to London in 1860 he was elected a Fellow of the Geological Society of London, and during the next few years gained further practical knowledge of this science by accompanying the officers of the Geological Survey, and in 1862 he published a paper on The Use of Geology to Military Officers. In 1866 he resigned his commission in the army, and came to...
