The 25 native communicants were all received into this church on examination and profession of their faith in Christ. --B. G. Wilder. I have, as heretofore, usually held a preaching service in our city chapel on Sunday P. M. , the attendance upon which has varied from 30 to 80. Some people from the near villages continue to come to these meetings, and are more disposed to listen gladly to the truth than to raise objections. I have also visited our Marathi school in Mungulwar Pait weekly, and tried to impress the fundamental truths of the Gospel upon the minds and hearts of the youth there, and all who have been disposed to listen to me. The three schools in Aditawar Pait and Chambhar (Tanners) Wada, taught by our native helpers, have frequently been visited, and the people in those localities been exhorted to repent and believe. I find that some of the pupils, their parents and others, have acquired some knowledge of Christianity, and I regard a few as inquirers. Preaching Tour. --In January, I made a three weeks tour through the eastern part of this State into the Putwurdhun States, accompanied by Messrs. Hull and Graham. In some towns large audiences assembled to hear us, and we sold quite a large number of tracts and Scripture portions. The whole number of villages visited by...
