Mr. J. M. Barrie is a true interpreter of the youthful mind when he says, in the Little Minister, Children like to peer into wells to see what the world is like at the other side. Grown-up people are also alive to the mystery of a spring. Look into its depth, observes Mr. E. H. Barker in his Wayfaring in France, until the eye, getting reconciled to the darkness, catches the gleam of the still water far below the ferns that hang from the gaping...
