It was worth a trip a mile to see This paper package marked TEDDY G. TEDDY-G stepped up to a man at ease And said, I want a button, please. What kind of button do you want? said he; A collar button, said TEDDY-G. Go down the aisle to the corner there; Then turn to the right; take the moving stair; Try the second floor on the State Street side. Said TEDDY-B Do we need a guide? The man was off; twas his busy day; And the bears were left to find their way, To reach the goal or the button spot Before the directions they forgot. When the stairs were reached the bears stood still; They asked a man how to climb the hill. Don t block the way, the man replied; Step on; be quick; there s no inside; This stairway...
