

Building a Culture of Intention

By Helios Hr

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Why should I stay with your company? This is a common challenge heard frequently by human resource professionals. This question cuts to the heart of the connection between employees and organizations. It is a strategic issue for the organization as well as a common concern for the individual. Employee development programs are essential to better organizational performance. A highly skilled and motivated workforce accomplishes more as they gain experience and knowledge, and retaining an employee saves the company money. Providing opportunities for employees to gain new skills and establishing a shared core value system are key strategies for sustaining higher retention rates. Inspired by the various clients who are strong supporters of employee development in their own organizations, Kathy Albarado, President and CEO of Helios HR, launched the Apollo Awards in 2007. Apollo recognizes leaders in the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area as they create opportunities in their organizations by investing in employee development initiatives. Apollo is remarkable due to its spirit of collaboration; it boasts an impressive network of like-minded business owners who share...
